LEGAL DISCLAIMERS

- A. This website may contain materials that are by their nature the “forward-looking statements” based on current assumptions and forecasts made by ISS management. Various known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors could lead to material differences between the actual future results, financial situation, development or performance of ISS (and its affiliates) and the estimates given here. ISS (and its affiliates) assume no liability whatsoever to update these forward-looking statements or to conform them to future events or developments.
- B. Commercialization of any new sorghum varieties is dependent on multiple factors, including successful conclusion of the regulatory process. The information presented herein is provided for educational purposes only, and is not and shall not be construed as an offer to sell, or a recommendation to use, any unregistered products for any purpose whatsoever.
- C. Sorghum hybrids performance may vary, from location to location and from year to year, as local growing, soil and weather conditions may vary. Growers should evaluate data from multiple locations and years whenever possible and should consider the impacts of these conditions on the grower’s fields. ISS makes no warranties, expressed or implied, with respect to the sorghum seeds beyond those set expressly set forth in agreements with its direct customers. ISS does not warrant or guarantee the merchantability of the seed nor the yield, stand or performance of the crop produced from same, and, absent its willful misconduct or gross negligence, shall have no liability to any person with respect hereto.
- D. Please review each seed tag to determine active ingredients in the product offering on the seed; always follow seed treatment label directions.
